Notice to the Market

Clarification on News: 'Cade opens suit against Raízen, Air BP, BR and GRU Airport'

Rio de Janeiro, October 3rd, 2018.

Petrobras Distribuidora S.A. (B3: BRDT3), referring to the report of the Valor newspaper published today under the title "Cade opens proceedings against Raízen, Air BP, BR and GRU Airport", and other reports that have reperculated the contents of the Technical Note issued by the General Superintendence of the Administrative Council for Economic Defense (CADE), in the scope of Process n° 08700.001831/2014-27, informs that the stage of administrative and contentious administrative proceeding has begun, for which the company has not yet been summoned to present its defense.

The Administrative Tribunal for Economic Defense (CADE) will also analyze the elements contained in the files, and may or may not agree with the position of the General Superintendence, with the possibility of other declarations of the company in said proceeding and, possibly, discussion of the matter in the judicial level.

The company informs that it has always collaborated with CADE and reinforces that it guides its action by the best commercial and competitive practices with ethics and respect to its clients, demanding the same behavior of its commercial partners.

The information of the process corresponding to BR is presented in item 4.3 - Non-confidential and relevant judicial, administrative or arbitration proceedings of the Reference Form 2018.

Any new relevant information on the subject will be communicated to the market in due time.
